

ZOOM LINK & INSTRUCTIONS:

We will now move Immunology WIP to the Zoom online format only. Many of you may find joining the conference most streamlined by heading to the following site with your browser and logging in with your wustl key at “SSO sign in.” <https://wustl.zoom.us/> Then either click on the link in the Zoom invitation below or select “Join a meeting” and put in the meeting code. The log-in period is set up for 30 minutes before the WIP session begins to allow you time to work out any glitches in logging in. The WIP session will occur from 4:00 to 5:00 p.m. each week.

When you arrive online, please mute your line before the session begins until the Q&A periods, when you can ask questions and interact. I am sure we will improve our skills in sharing and discussion as the weeks go forward.

NOTE: All participants - including presenters, host, attendees - Should log in from their own home computers. There is no need to meet together. Presenters should make an attempt to check their microphones to be as strong as possible. A microphone associated with a set of headphones is a good idea, if that's possible.
